→ Being a B Corp

ACE's commitment to serving, leading and achieving extends beyond our students. As a Certified B Corporation, our employees are committed to making a difference in their communities, and we strive to impart that same spirit into the lives of our students.

How We Made a Difference in 2020:

→ More than 1,300 individual civic hours logged by ACE employees

→ 964 backpacks filled with school supplies for Indianapolis-area students

→ Over 13,680 meals provided for Indianapolis-area residents experiencing food insecurity

→ $10,711 raised for Indianapolis-area teachers to provide school supplies

→ $7,254 raised for St. Jude Children's Hospital

→ Named Fourth Best Place to Work in Indiana among Large Companies

EMPLOYEE SATISFACTION according to a third-party survey

100%	98%	97%	97%
employees reported being satisfied with ACE's work environment overall	employees reported being satisfied with ACE leadership and planning	employees reported feeling engaged with their work at ACE	employees reported a positive relationship with their supervisor

ACE as a Certified B Corp

The benefit corporation (B Corp) is a legal structure for a business, like an LLC or a corporation. Certified B Corporations are businesses that meet the highest standards of verified social and environmental performance, public transparency, and legal accountability to balance profit and purpose. B Corps are accelerating a global culter shift to redefine success in business and build a more inclusive and sustainable economy.

Other notable B Corps include: Hootsuite, New Belgium Brewing, patagonia, Ben & Jerry's Warby Parker and Etsy.

AMERICAN COLLEGE of EDUCATION

2020 Impact Report

Certified B Corporation

"As a faculty member at ACE, I take great joy in functioning as a positive and vital force within our societal framework. I am excited by daily by the thought that our core values- values that guide our actions 24/7 have the potential to exponentially enhance the quality of life for students everywhere."

- Marsha J. Phelps, MBA, Ed.D. Department of Leadership and Administration

AMERICAN COLLEGE of EDUCATION

ace.edu